Through her connection with the AYA Chronicles, which she represents on Earth, she shares from her cosmic body as AYA insights into the destiny of human beings and all the questions that can be asked about this within human lives and all that lives. ## Connecting Factors in Shared Spheres

We stand for the spheres we radiate in everything we do. We continue the conversation to keep developing the shared dance, both as volunteers and within society. The spheres of Maike Liselot AYA that you can expect, embody, or wish to learn to embody include: gentle strength, calm, silence, love, warmth, vitality, forward-moving energy, uplifting, supportive, and inspiring.

Not: loud, harsh, attention-seeking, pulling downward, repelling, cold, undermining, or restricting.

The atmospheres we create shape humanity.

The Trinity: Contributing, Adding Value, Giving

The Trinity that holds power for all AYA Ambassadors is the trinity of Contributing, Adding Value, and Giving. Those who live in alignment with this trinity are protected for the benefit of their own life. Below, the three values of this trinity are explained and discussed in more detail.

Contributing = selflessly being available for AYA Health Worldwide and inspiring in the life dedication and life mission of Maike Liselot AYA, thereby demonstrating a life attitude of adding, stepping up, and showing initiative.

Adding Value = knowing that you are valuable through what you contribute as an AYA Ambassador. This is about “those who do good, meet good.” Through your own efforts, you recognize when you are adding value. This is extremely important for the protection of AYA Health Worldwide, connected to the AYA Chronicles that Maike Liselot AYArepresents on planet Earth.

Giving = giving more than taking. Every AYA Ambassador enjoys protection and blessing by embodying this energy point. We give, which means you can never only take. Giving must prevail. This life attitude brings abundance into your life without making it a goal, allowing you to act from giving rather than taking.

Those who give enjoy abundance; those who only take experience conflict.
